POPIA – Privacy Policy Statement

26 October 2021

Developed by: Patheos Business Services (Pty) Ltd

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT (POPI ACT)
Document:	A STANDARD POPI ACT – PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT
Purpose:	The POPI Act requires businesses to limit their use of personal data, get consent before using it, and allow users to withdraw their consent. To make sure the consent is "informed", you must publish several details, which is best done in a Privacy Policy.	Version:	13.12.2021

PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

This Privacy Policy Statement is for Patria Family Church, Registration Number 037-263-NPO, and Stelios Group NPC, Registration number 2015/055209/08, which are related to:

- The members and congregants of the Patria Family Church.
- The participants of all the accredited Stelios Group NPC Projects.

Respecting and protecting your Personal Information (please refer to the definition of Personal Information at the end of this policy statement) is very important to us. It is also a Constitutional right, legal, and good business practice requirement, which we take very seriously.

In line with the 8 Conditions in the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 3013 (the Act), we:

- ✓ Accept joint responsibility and accountability with you to responsibly manage and protect your Personal Information when providing our services and solutions to you.
- ✓ Undertake to receive, only from you, and process the Personal Information that is necessary for the purpose to assist you with your required solutions, conclude the necessary related agreements and consider the legitimate legal interests of everyone concerned, as required by the Act and to respect your right to withdraw your consent for the processing of your Personal Information.
- ✓ Undertake to only use your Personal Information for the purpose required to assist you or provide services to you.
- ✓ Undertake not to share or further process your Personal Information with anyone if not required for assisting you with your services or by law.
- ✓ Undertake to be open and transparent and notify you as and when required by law regarding why and how your Personal Information needs to be collected.
- ✓ Undertake to safeguard and protect your Personal Information in our possession.
- ✓ Undertake to freely confirm what Personal Information we have, to update and correct the Personal Information, and to keep it for no longer than legally required. A confirmation letter will be issued when Personal Information has been discarded.

We or the companies who provide or assist with the services you required need to collect, use, and keep your Personal Information as prescribed by relevant laws and regulations and for reasons such as:

- ✓ To share with and provide relevant products or services to you, to carry out the transaction you requested, and to maintain our relationship.
- ✓ To respond to your queries.
- ✓ To confirm and verify your identity or to verify that you are an authorised user for security purposes.
- ✓ For ministry, projects and training purposes.
- ✓ To execute and conduct relevant services.
- ✓ For operational purposes required to assist you with the services you require.
- ✓ For audit and record-keeping purposes.
- ✓ In connection with possible requirements by the Information Regulator or other Government agencies allowed by law, legal proceedings, or court rulings.

We may need to share your Personal Information and/or utilise software or online platforms to enter and process your information for an application or business management purposes. This will only be done in strict adherence to the requirements of the Act.

We do not use “cookies” on our website because we do not facilitate any online marketing.

Any additional information or concerns can be found and raised with the Information Regulator, who can be contacted as shared below, but please feel free to contact us first to discuss any questions or concerns you may have:
